cheaper than they could for themselves, they will never give them work to do This engrossing of so many trades into their hands beggareth many that usually live by trade He thought it inconvenient to have men's lands surveyed because many are now esteemed richer than they are, and if their land and goods were surveyed they would be found beggars , and so their credit, which is now then wealth, would be bound nothing But he agreed to three subsidies, for the longer we defer aid, the less shall we be able to yield aid, and in the end the greater aid will be required of us

Sir Francis Drake described the King of Spain's strength and cruelty where he came, and wished a frank aid to be yielded to withstand him , and he agreed to three subsidies

In the afternoon the House considered of the subsidies m committee and after long debate it was agreed for three sub-sidies payable in four years

ytb March BARROWISTS ARRESTED.

Many of the sect called Barrowists have been taken at one of their meetings at Islington One, Daniel Buck, a scrivener, was to-day examined before Justice Young Concerning the bishops he thinketh that they have no spiritual authority over the rest of the Church Being demanded who was their pastor, he said one Mr Francis Johnson , and about six months since this Johnson delivered the sacrament of baptism to seven persons, but they had neither godfathers nor godmothers He took water and washed the faces of them that were baptised, saying only in the administration of the sacrament, * I do baptise thee in the name of the Father, of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost,' without using any other ceremony therein, as is usually observed according to the Book of Common Prayer.

Being further demanded the manner of the Lord's Supper administered among them, he saith that five white loaves or more were set upon the table The pastor did then break the bread, and delivered it to some of them, and the deacons delivered to the rest, some of the congregation sitting and some standing about the table And the pastor delivered the cup unto one, and he to another, till all had drunken, using the words at the delivery thereof as it is set down in the eleventh of the Corinthians, the 24th verse
